

YOUTH Services

The Whole Person's Youth Services provide services that meet the transitional, educational, and social needs of youth with disabilities. Their goal and ours is to help youth with disabilities learn the independent living skills needed to make a successful transition into adulthood.

Our current program features the following:

- Living Well with a Disability
An 11-week health promotion and wellness workshop, designed specifically for people with disabilities, can help you discover:
 - How your lifestyle affects your disability
 - How your meaningful life goals can help you develop healthy living habits
 - How healthy living habits can create new possibilities
- High School Youth Transition to Independence Program
An 8-12 week high school course that provides students with skills and resources necessary to have for transitioning from high school into adulthood.
- The Whole Family Project
Individualized instruction in sign language for infants and children up to 12 years. The Whole Family Program seeks to increase the ability of families to communicate with their children who are deaf or nonverbal while increasing their knowledge and understanding of deafness, the deaf community and other available options for their children.

If you are a youth, parent of a youth with a disability, or caregiver, contact:

Support Groups

Through peer groups there is a full exchange of brainstorming, problem solving, and sharing of concerns, successes, and ways to address issues. Peer groups meet 1-2 times a month.

Visit our website for more information about each of these groups, meeting dates, locations and contact information for each facilitator.

Community Outreach

The Whole Person provides education on disability etiquette, including reasonable accommodations and accepted social interaction, as well as why disability awareness is important. Visit our website to arrange a presentation for your company or organization.
