

Planting Independence

April 25 & 26, 2025

This program provides assistance with general yard clean-up for consumers who receive services, or are in any of our programs. TWP partners with volunteer groups and individuals to perform low to moderate risk activities such as mowing, raking, weeding, and planting. (Excluded activities are lifting over 50 lbs or handling or removing any hazardous material.)

Sponsorship Levels:

MASTER GARDENER$5,000

- Top sponsor recognition and logo, or name, on ALL event-related marketing and promotional collateral, event page on website (with business link if applicable), media announcements, and press releases.
- Top sponsor recognition on event t-shirt (if sponsorship commitment is received by 3/20/25)

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT$2,500

PLANTING INDEPENDENCE

One yard at a time

Yard maintenance can be an impossible situation for people with disabilities. This activity helps TWP consumers get a handle on their yards and avoid unnecessary fines from the city in which they live.

This is an excellent opportunity for individuals, families, clubs, schools, scouts, organizations, and businesses who are looking for an activity to give back, be outdoors, and serve individuals in our community that live with disabilities.
