

Deaf Services

Communication is a basic need of humanity. The Whole Person strives to manage, reduce and break down this barrier to the Deaf and Hard of Hearing communities.

Information & Referral Services

- Providing updated information about services and support, including adaptive equipment, transportation and accessible housing.
- Referrals to groups and services matching needs related to the Deaf.

Advocacy

- Educating Deaf and hearing communities about the right to equal opportunities, education and communication access.
- Training to learn successful self-direction, along with developing the knowledge and skills for problem solving and goal setting.

Independent Living Skills

- Empowering deaf individuals to successfully live an independent lifestyle
- Training to manage personal finances, health, family, transportation and education
- Mentoring to integrate the Deaf and hearing communities and promote socialization

Peer Mentoring

Bringing together deaf people from all backgrounds provides an opportunity to share personal experiences and knowledge, in turn inspiring empowerment, motivation and goals. These relationships can result in improved emotional well-being and better management of everyday problems.

Transition Services

Offering resources and support to individuals presently in nursing facilities or at risk of entering facilities. Staff provide options for safe housing and protection from high risk situations, reducing the barriers of communication and service.

Who We Serve

- Deaf individuals from diverse backgrounds who use American Sign Language
- Deaf people using varying communication methods, including assistive technology
- Families and friends of Deaf community
- Professionals – medical, legal, law enforcement, academic, public and social services
- All ages, genders, socio-economic groups, ethnicities, sexual orientations
- Employers looking to promote inclusion

What We Do

- Provide compassion, understanding and tools needed to assist both the hearing community and the Deaf and hard of hearing communities to work together successfully
- Active listening and a proactive approach to responding to consumers' needs
- Presentations and events to enhance community awareness of Deaf culture
- Offer use of video phone and accessible computers
- Assistive technology (TAP telephones)

The Whole Family Project

Through individualized instruction in sign language, The Whole Family Project seeks to increase the ability of families to communicate with their children, infants and children up to 12 years, who are deaf or nonverbal, while increasing their knowledge and understanding of deafness, the Deaf community and available options. The Whole Family Project provides each family with their own qualified tutor who tailors lessons to meet the unique communication needs of each family. Tutors may be interpreters, family members of a deaf individual, or deaf themselves.

Mission Statement

The Whole Person connects people with disabilities to the resources they need by supporting independent choice and advocating for positive change in the community.

Vision Statement

The Whole Person envisions a fully accessible community where opportunities and choices are not limited by disability.

Support Groups

Through peer groups there is a full exchange of brainstorming, problem solving, and sharing of concerns, successes, and ways to address issues. Peer groups meet 1-2 times a month. Visit our website for more information about each of these groups, meeting dates, locations and contact information for each facilitator.

Community Outreach

The Whole Person provides education on disability etiquette, including reasonable accommodations and accepted social interaction, as well as why disability awareness is important. Visit our website to arrange a presentation for your company or organization.
